

Thames Chambers

Transparency of Fees — Immigration Law

Personal immigration applications

Work	Fee
Nationality (Citizenship, naturalisation for adults and minors, right of abode application) — Adult	£900
Nationality (Citizenship, naturalisation for adults and minors, right of abode application) — Child	£800
Human Rights (FLR FP)	£1,200 - £1,500
Human Rights (FLR M)	£1,000 - £1,500
Skilled Worker (Points-based System)	£700
Leave Outside the Immigration Rules	£1,200 - £1,500
Asylum	£1,500 - £2,000
Visitor Visa	£1,000
Short Stay Visa (e.g. short-term visas)	£700
Settlement in the UK (10 years, marriage, 5-year route to settlement, skilled worker)	£1,250
Student Visas (processing application only)	£600
Graduate Visas	£700
Entry Clearance as Family	£1,500
Fee Waiver	£650
Fee Waiver & any Leave to Remain application	£1,700

Business immigration applications

Work	Fee
Sponsorship Licence (Skilled Worker application)	£1,500
Expansion Worker	£8,000 - £10,000

Appeals and tribunal work

Work	Fee
Lodging an immigration appeal	£850
Drafting skeleton argument	£750 - £1,200
Preparing immigration appeal hearing bundle, including drafting witness statements	£1,200 - £2,500

These figures are indicative and are given for guidance only. Fees depend on the complexity of the matter, the volume of documents and the urgency of the work. VAT and disbursements (such as court, tribunal and Home Office fees, experts and interpreters) are additional where applicable. A binding figure is confirmed in writing in the client care letter or fee agreement before work begins. Thames Chambers is the practice name of Mohammad Jahirul Islam, who is regulated by the Bar Standards Board.